MOTIVATIONAL SPEAKER AND PERSONAL
DEVELOPMENT COACH

KEYNOTE #1 HANG IN THERE, AND ALSO QUIT

Have you ever felt stuck in a job you don't love with no way out, yet with a front seat view to the job of your dreams? Are the wheels spinning in your mind about things you know you should do, and yet these same wheels are keeping you firmly in place? Have you had enough of your situation and know you should leave, yet aren't sure of how? If so, this talk is for you!

"Hang in There, and also Quit" is about building the mental muscle to make the physical leaps necessary to move you into your "next." Whether that be moving into your dream role in your organization, moving all the levers to propel you toward your personal success or maybe even moving into starting that business you have dreamed of for years. This talk will help you clearly draft a plan of action to make those changes happen, while also making the most of your current situation. This two-fold approach will foster tenacity while formulating transformation, resulting in a well defined survival and exit strategy.

"She is one of the most dynamic and engaging personalities I have had the pleasure to work with. Maria personally tailored and executed a plan that suited our needs here in Basel.

Her endless enthusiasm and absolute professionalism were key to a successful outcome for the business."

Maria's Bio

Not often in the world of business will you find a speaker with the experience of Maria Moss, who dedicates her time and talent to help individuals around the world find their "magic" -- That perfect mix of passion and skill to help propel them towards the future of their dreams.

Maria believes we all have a story that gives us a glimpse of who we truly are and what we are destined to become. With that philosophy as the foundation, she uses her life as an example to skillfully help others along in their journeys.

Having thrived through various hardships, including being a teen mom, being laid off from her dream job and starting a business while finishing an MBA program, Maria has developed skills around tenacity, reinvigoration, and acceleration to name a few. These skills have afforded her amazing opportunities and experiences such as traveling the world supporting global Executive Leadership programs, while simultaneously being able to be more present than ever for her husband and four daughters. This is all in addition to running her own training consulting firm, Phoenix Leadership Solutions, LLC.

Testimonials

Pearls are often viewed as synonymous with presence and power. They carry the reputation of being unblemished, perfect in shape and a thing of beauty. Too often in our lives, we can seemingly feel the exact opposite about ourselves, despite all of the accomplishments and successes in our personal and professional worlds.

“The Process of Becoming a PEARL” allows for an examination of all that has gotten us to where we are, and that will propel us to where we are going. Looking through the lens of the way pearls are made, we gain a model for Preparing, Evolving & Adapting, Rebuilding and Leading that serves as the catalyst for rebirth and rejuvenation in all areas of our lives. The result is a lasting strategy to serve as a reminder of the power and presence WE possess. We can leverage these gifts to not only embrace OUR greatness, but to also make a life-long impact on those around us.

“Maria Moss, you are a consummate professional, a keenly skilled and brilliant learning architect, and a dream of a business partner! Thank you for seeing the possibilities in EMC...and for bringing it to life!”
